"Buried Alive"

Hassan and Jack find Nadia and carry her through the flames to a nearby cave into which several lions have gone to escape the fire. Jack manages to frighten away the beasts and he and the others leave by /the other entrance to the cave. They hurry away from the fire and come upon an encampment belonging to Gregory Harden, who claims to be an ivory hunter.

Nadia feels she has seen Harden before and becomes suspicious, warning Jack to be careful. Harden seems to notice Nadia's suspicious attitude and tries to ingratiate himself into her confidence.

Meanwhile Stanley, weakened by African fever is having his troubles with Shaw, the malingerer. He berates him for drinking to excess and tries to make a man of him. Livingstone, at this time, is receiving assistance from a friendly Arab chief, who gives him much valuable data for his writing.

b Harden takes Jack on an elephant hunt. While they are gone, a terrific landslide occurs on the cliffs behind Harden's encampment and Nadia, writing unconcernedly in her tent, is buried beneath the avalanche of rocks.
